

Tim Berners-Lee

The Man Who Made the Web

Meet Tim!

Tim Berners-Lee made the World Wide Web. The web is full of web pages you can look at. You use a web browser to see them. You can click a link to jump to a new page. Tim made the web in a science lab far away. He let everyone use the web for free. Now people all over the world use the web!
