

Marian Croak

The Internet Call Inventor

Talking Over the Internet!

Marian Croak is an engineer. She likes to solve problems. She found a way to send your voice on the internet. Your voice turns into tiny bits of data. The data zips across the internet fast. Now you can call a friend who is far away! You can make these calls on a phone or a computer with wifi.

1 Word Power

internetcall*data

1. Marian found a way to send your voice on the
2. Now you can a friend who is far away.
3. Your voice turns into tiny bits of

2 Check the things that help send a call over the internet.

☐

phone

☐

computer

☐

wifi

☐

tree

☐

banana

☐

dog

Marian Croak3 Draw It!

Draw yourself calling a friend over the internet, with your voice turning into little bits of data.

★ FUN FACT: Marian Croak has more than 200 patents! A patent says you invented something new.